TEACHING EXPERIENCE

INSTRUCTOR OF THEATRE (Head of Theatre, Full-Time) Fall 2014 – current Middlesex County College: Visual Performing Media Arts Department Edison, NJ

- 5/5 Teaching Load; Director: one production each semester.
- Advisor & Mentor to all theatre majors.

Courses Taught:

- THE 105 – Introduction to Theatre: An investigation of the on-stage and backstage elements of contemporary theatre, film and television. Emphasis on the collaboration of performers, writers, directors, designers and technicians and the role of the audience.
- THE 131 – Acting I: introduces basic principles of acting through daily exercises and assignments designed to expand the students' imagination and provide a foundation to develop a stage character through physical and vocal expressions.
- THE 132 – Acting II: Further development of the basic techniques of theatrical communication. Study of the director-actor-audience relationship. Practical application through rehearsal and performance of one-act plays.
- THE 123 – Theatre History (Greeks to 19th C): A study of theatre as an art form with an emphasis on production practices in the Golden Ages of theatre: Greek, Roman, Medieval, Renaissance, and Restoration. Representative plays, theatres, acting, staging and design styles explored.
- THE 124 – Contemporary Theatre History (19th – 21st C): A study of the development of twentieth century theatre art from Realism to New Theatre eclectic styles. The background and evolution of Realism, Expressionism, Theatre of the Absurd and current theatre movements explored.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF THEATRE Full-Time: 2009 – 2014, Adjunct: FA 2015 – current Kean University: Department of Theatre, Union, NJ
